
My friend fell off her bike and scraped her knee. It's bleeding badly.	You tripped over and rolled your ankle. Now it really hurts to walk!	A car just crashed into a tree on your street.	Dad burnt his finger cooking his dinner.
Dad has fallen over in the backyard and won't wake up.	You saw some people break into the house next door.	Your dog has run away.	The house across the road has smoke and flames coming out of it.
Mum can't find her purse anywhere! She thinks she left it at the shops.	You smashed the window with your ball.	A child who can't swim fell into the pool and isn't breathing	A stranger offered you a lift in their car while you were walking home.
