

The goose with the golden eggs

Many years ago, a farmer was collecting eggs. He found a heavy yellow egg in his goose's nest.

He was going to throw it away because he thought someone was playing a trick on him. But when he took it home, he found that the egg was made of gold.

The farmer wanted to be very, very rich. He knew the gold egg was worth a lot of money.

The next day, the goose laid another gold egg. The farmer sold the eggs for a lot of money.

Every day, the goose laid a gold egg. The farmer sold all the eggs. Soon he was a rich man.

As he grew richer, the farmer grew greedy. He wanted more and more gold to sell.

He wanted to get all the gold. So one morning he killed the goose to get it. But there was no gold inside the goose.

The farmer would get no more gold and he was very sad. He had killed the goose because he was too greedy.
